TELEPHONE CONVERSATION BETWEEN DCI AND CONGRESSMAN CANNON

15 November 1963 - 12:00 noon

DCI: Hello

C: Mr. Director, this is Mr. Cannon

DCI: Yes Sir, how are you Mr. Cannon?

C: Mr. Director, our committee took immediate action to include the additional funds which you protested and we agreed to write a letter including this.

DCI: Good

C: To be certain that we collaborated with the Senate I appointed a subcommittee consisting of Mr. Mahon of Texas and Mr. Ford of Michigan and authorized them to confer the Senator from Georgia. Now when they conferred with him with their replies, he rather questioned the matter.

DCI: Oh?

C: The Senator from Georgia.

DCI: Yes

C: But they are to see him again and I talked to them about an hour ago. They are to see him again and at any rate, the committee of five has authorized this and it will be forthcoming eventually, but they would like to secure the collaboration from the Senator from Georgia before we send the letter, but you can depend on the amount. Good bye, thank you very much, Mr. Director.

DCI: Thank you Mr. Cannon.
